They are the volunteers who read our manuscripts to give a reader's perspective, and show us the things we just can't see for ourselves. Maybe you've tried to get manuscript feedback in the past, but you've run into these common problems. "I can't find the right people." "They are too slow." "They don't give me anything useful." "They are too nice." "They hated my book and broke my heart." Multi-award-winning author Belinda Pollard knows how you feel. She has faced all these challenges and developed unique solutions, drawing from her work as a developmental editor over two decades. This practical and highly-readable book will help you develop a customized feedback strategy for your manuscripts---and become the writer you were born to be. "An invaluable book for every writer--indie or traditional. Great, thoughtful and inspiring advice."
